

CAMPAIGN FOR THE RIGHT TO IDENTITY IN ITALY

Within the framework of the Campaign for the Right to Identity recently launched by the Argentine Embassy in Italy, the head of the National Commission for the Right to Identity (CONADI), Claudia Carlotto, and restituted grandchild Guillermo Pérez Roisinblit visited the country. Both of them participated in activities held in different Italian cities, including a special TV programme in San Marino. The film “Verdades verdaderas” [Real Truths], which tells the story of Estela de Carlotto, was also shown. The visitors were welcomed by the high authorities of the various cities they visited, and their visit received great coverage by the local press.
